Centering on Margaret Marshall Saunders, a Canadian woman writer once famous for her animal novels, and incorporating Young's own experience of a beloved animal's illness, this study highlights the personal and intellectual stakes of a "pet project" of cultural criticism. Young assembles a broad archive of materials, beginning with Saunders's novels and widening outward to include fiction, nonfiction, photography, and taxidermy. She coins the term "first-dog voice" to describe the narrative technique of novels, such as Saunders's Beautiful Joe, written in the first person from the perspective of an animal. She connects this voice to contemporary political issues, revealing how animal fiction such as Saunders's reanimates nineteenth-century writing about both feminism and slavery. Highlighting the prominence of taxidermy in the late nineteenth century, she suggests that Saunders transforms taxidermic techniques in surprising ways that provide new forms of authority for women. Young adapts Freud to analyze literary representations of mourning by and for animals, and she examines how Canadian writers, including Saunders, use animals to explore race, ethnicity, and national identity. Her wide-ranging investigation incorporates twenty-first as well as nineteenth-century works of literature and culture, including recent art using taxidermy and contemporary film. Throughout, she reflects on the tools she uses to craft her analyses, examining the state of scholarly fields from feminist criticism to animal studies. With a lively, first-person voice that highlights experiences usually concealed in academic studies by scholarly discourse—such as detours, zigzags, roadblocks, and personal experience—this unique and innovative book will delight animal enthusiasts and academics in the fields of animal studies, gender studies, American studies, and Canadian studies. Slave Jun 29 2020 Now watch the BBC drama Doing Money ‘They took me because I would not be missed’ This is the shocking true story of how an ordinary young girl was kidnapped off the street as she walked home and turned into a slave - before fighting for her freedom and finding the courage to help the police in one of the UK’s most shocking modern-day slavery trials. Anna was an innocent student when she was kidnapped, beaten and forced into the sex slave industry. Threatened and tormented by her pimps, she was made to sleep with thousands of men. But she would not allow them to break her. On learning that she would be trafficked from Ireland to Dubai, she found the courage to trick her captors and flee. Later, she would also find that same resilience to help the police bring down her abductors in what has now become one of our biggest windows into the worldwide sex trafficking trade. For the first time, the girl at the centre of the storm reveals the heart-breaking truth.

Anna K Jan 05 2021 'This entertaining debut relocates Anna Karenina to Manhattan's Upper East Side for the Tolstoy/Gossip Girl mash-up you never knew you needed.' I Newspaper Welcome to New York's Upper East Side: where privilege, partying and scandal rules. Anna K is the golden girl of New York high society. She's beautiful, she's kind, she's unbelievably rich, and she has the perfect boyfriend. Until she meets Alexi Vronsky. He's a notorious playboy, totally gorgeous, and he only has eyes for Anna. Despite everyone who matters in New York talking about her, Anna still just can't resist Vronsky. Even if it means her carefully crafted life could come crashing down. Perfect for fans of Crazy Rich Asians and Gossip Girl this is an addictive and subversive reimagining of Leo Tolstoy's timeless love story Anna Karenina. "A fresh and wickedly smart take on a classic story. Anna is even more scandalously fun now, in the age of stilettos and social media, than she was in 19th century Russia. I couldn't put this one down." Katharine McGee, New York Times bestselling author of American Royals Scandal Oct 22 2019 Looking at six major British scandals between 1763 and 1820, this book demonstrates that scandals brought people into politics because they evoked familiar stories of sex and betrayal.

Visions of Anna Dec 24 2019 Matthew Harken discovers he has terminal cancer. Ill-prepared to meet his end, he makes a pilgrimage to the scene of the suicide of his dearest friend, Anna. He has the irrational hope that by investigating her death, he may be able to see into the world of the dead. VISIONS OF ANNA is a sometimes funny, sometimes disturbing work of contemporary American magic realism. It's a story of sex, psychology, art, Hollywood, the Holocaust, reincarnation and love. Book One of THE AFTERLIFE TRILOGY, VISIONS OF ANNA is followed by SHE PLAYS IN DARKNESS by Fern Chertkow and the play ANNA IN THE AFTERLIFE by Richard Engling.

Yes Yes More More Nov 03 2020 Two schoolgirls in Bolton take acid just before their English class. A film journalist shares tea and a KitKat with Marcel Proust, more or less, during a long train journey. An afterparty turns into a crime scene. Colleagues, maybe in love, have lunch and don't quite talk about their relationship. A woman flees to New Orleans and finds unexpected treasures there. In her electric debut, Anna Wood skips through the decades of a woman's life, meeting friends, lovers, shapeshifters, and doppelgangers along the way. Delights and regrets pile up, time becomes non-linear, characters stumble and shimmy through moments of rupture, horror, and joy. Written with warmth, wit, and swagger, these stories glide from acutely observed comic dialogue to giddy surrealism and quiet heartbreak, and always there is music - pop songs as tiny portals into another world. Yes Yes More More is packed with friendship, memory, pleasure, and love.

Anna of Saxony Mar 27 2020 Since her early youth at the glittering court of Dresden, Anna had been known as a difficult child and troublemaker. Servants complained about her violent outbursts, while courtiers bemoaned her general disregard for aristocratic female etiquette. Upon reaching her teenage years, the princess' guardians decided that Saxony's enfant terrible should leave home as quickly as possible by marrying a foreign suitor in a preferably far-away land. Enter William of Orange: handsome, charming, and heir to one of the Netherlands' largest estates. The fact that he was also a profligate partier and lover of women was conveniently overlooked. Anna immediately fell for the Dutch bon vivant despite warnings from a few well-meaning relatives. For one, William was a Catholic, while Anna adhered to the Protestant teachings of Martin Luther, critical voices cautioned, correctly predicting future trouble for the princess in the Catholic Netherlands. Furthermore, the prince's liege lord, the fanatical Philip II of Spain, very much disapproved of a match between his premier vassal and a "Lutheran heretic." There was also the issue of plain Anna's growing obsession with the roguish William; an obsession that was not reciprocated. In the end, the impetuous princess threw caution to the wind. No other than William would do for a husband, she insisted, while publicly announcing that "every vein in my body heartily loves him."

What's Normal Anyway? Celebrities' Own

Stories of Mental Illness Feb 06 2021 Nobody is immune from mental ill health, not even celebrities . . . We all know someone who suffers from mental illness. It may be a family member, friend, neighbour, or colleague. Now or in the future, it might be you. Here, for the first time, ten celebrities share their experiences of conditions including depression and anxiety, bipolar disorder and OCD, eating disorders and body dysmorphia. From Premiership footballer Dean Windass, to TV presenter Trisha Goddard, their candid first-person accounts detail the day-to-day reality of living with a mental health disorder, as well as the nervous breakdowns, stays in psychiatric hospitals, and suicide attempts. They also show that, ultimately, mental illness need not limit achievement, happiness, and fulfilment in life. These frank and honest stories help us to better understand mental illness, offer practical coping strategies, and give encouragement and solace for everyone out there who feels they are suffering alone.

What's Normal Anyway? shows that nobody is immune from mental ill health and shares powerful messages of positivity and hope. Contributors include: Bill Oddie, Alicia Douvall, Alastair Campbell, Stephanie Cole, Kevan Jones, Dean Windass, Trisha Goddard, Charles Walker, Tasha Danvers and Richard Mabey.

A Woman's Touch by Kathleen Tudor Cassie's marriage is safe but predictable, and she knows there's a world of excitement she is missing out on. Taking the plunge, she meets up with the experienced Sam, who is only too willing to show her the pleasure of a woman's touch. The Lock-in by Alice Candy When Roxy and JJ go for a quiet weekend to the Highlands of Scotland they expect to escape their hectic London lives and have a few days of peace and quiet to get to know each other better. Popping into a country pub for a drink, they encounter a sexy young barmaid who is determined to show them a good time and invites them to stay for their own private lock-in. Roxy thinks she's seen it all before and has agreed to a weekend in the sticks to relax but the couple soon find that maybe these Highlands are more exciting than they thought and a lock-in in this particular hostelry is not what they had imagined ...

Overtime by Harper Bliss For Laura, working at a major law firm means most of her nights are spent working overtime on one of her many cases, all in an effort to please her ruthless boss Cathy Turner. When she gets called into Cathy's office late one night, the verbal chastising she was expecting turns out to be a much more physical experience than she could ever have imagined, giving a whole new meaning to getting “hands-on experience”. Overtime has never been so hot ... Lam-dancing by Lynn Lake Sally just lost her girlfriend and is about to lose her apartment, maybe her job down at the dime-a-dance hall, too. It was the Great Depression, and times were tougher than a five-cent steak for a girl all by herself in the big city. Until someone grabbed onto her waist and hand at the dance palace who was in even a tighter spot than Sally was, set things in motion. And suddenly, just like that, happy days were here again! Cherry Red by Jayne Wheatley Air stewardess Anna thinks it will be just another day in the sky as her early morning flight takes off. Beguiling passenger Lottie captures her attention very quickly, and it isn't long before she is flustered. Lottie becomes very afraid of the turbulence and hides in the toilet. Anna, the dutiful stewardess, consoles her, and soon the situation turns very heated. But as Anna becomes ever more submissive to the wishes of her passenger, it turns out this is no ordinary flight, after all... Anita and Angie Get Wet by Alex Jordaine The last thing Angie wants to do on this rainy night is visit her stepmother, a woman she can't stand. Angie's lover, Anita, taunts and teases her unmercifully with lurid accounts of the raunchy things she'll be doing in Angie's absence. Angie becomes thoroughly juiced-up as a result of Anita's efforts, as indeed does Anita herself. Angie wonders desperately if there might be a way she can get out of the visit she's dreading and instead stay in and have hot sex with Anita. Her lover shows her the way - outrageously. Lucky Charm by Kate Dominic When it's ten below, where would you rather be - shopping for pretty things or out on the ice while your sporty girlfriend indulges in a spot of competitive fishing? Luckily, there are ways a pampered princess can heat up even the coldest places, and prove she's Maribelle's lucky charm in more ways than one. Fine Print by Emma Lydia Bates Getting lost coming out of a meeting leads Lily unexpectedly into a beautiful but dilapidated room that's being restored. It isn't the room that interests her though, but the woman redecorating it. When the door is locked behind her, it's the cue for Lily's most private fantasies to be explored. A Change of Heart by Lucy Felthouse When Alexis' friend Kelly asks her to go to an aerobics class with her, she's dead set against the idea. Kelly's very persuasive, though, and eventually Alexis gives in. Once there, she immediately feels out of place amongst all the skinny, attractive girls in their tiny outfits. The instructor, Zoe, is even worse. With her athletic figure, bouncy ponytail and gorgeous smile, she's perfection personified, and she makes Alexis sick. There's no way she's going to come back to the class - it's just not for her. After meeting Zoe properly, though, Alexis has a sudden change of heart. Back to Square One by Angel Propps A young woman from a small town finds out making it in the big city and making the grade at her university is not as hard as she thought it would be after she steals a coat belonging to womanising professor Louise Hall. Louise tracks her quarry through the crowded city streets and when she catches her she gives her a tough lesson in public sex and submission, but she is about to learn a lesson of her own because her prey is a hunter too and she knows just how to snare the elusive Louise. Corsetry for Beginners by Medea Mor Lauren runs a successful corset shop, and one day, she receives a request to close her shop for a private fitting for a celebrity client. The celebrity is an award-winning singer Maisie James, who turns out to be as interested in Lauren as Lauren is in her. Soon, the temperature in the fitting room is rising as Lauren gets to know every curve of Maisie's famous body. Alison by Shea Lancaster Sarah is a nurse who has had a typically lousy day at work. Settling down for a nice pint in a pub by the river with a book seems to be the perfect way to relax. When she's interrupted by a mysterious woman who buys her a drink, however, she throws caution to the wind and accepts. What follows is a surprising, but intensely erotic encounter ... Feast by Rachel Charman Tonight will be a very special meal. Dry martinis, slippery oysters, rare roast lamb and a sweet, sticky, icy semifreddo - and the body of a gorgeous woman to eat this succulent feast from... The Gift by Encarnita Round Rose Marie has no time for anything but her work. So for her birthday, her friends decide the perfect gift would be a little stress relief and, most importantly, a little time for herself. They send her to their local salon for the special stress buster, and although Rose thinks she has other things to do, they do not take no for an answer. Sexy therapist Nina has a way of turning a relaxing massage into something hot and steamy, and Rose discovers an entirely different interpretation to the notion of stress busting. The New Curiosity Shop by Jean-Philippe Aubourg It was the tiniest detail about the woman in the shop, which had recently opened in Maggie's high street, which led Maggie to try and seduce her. But the shopkeeper had also noticed Maggie. And so their dance of seduction began. In Pearls by Giselle Renarde When Davina moves in, Greer expects the delicious diva to help with household chores. No such luck! Davina doesn't do windows or dishes or anything else. One day Greer's frustration comes to a head, and she realises the only way Davina will ever contribute is if she gets to put on a show. Greer is more than happy to watch her woman vacuum, as long as it's in pearls, high heels, and vintage lingerie! The Wedding Singer by Anna Sansom You've been to one wedding; you've been to them all. And when you're a wedding singer these events get pretty boring and forgettable. But then something happened that took her completely by surprise. And, as long as her dress didn't get crushed and no one came looking for them, their clandestine encounter was going to make this one wedding she would never forget. The Senator's Daughter by Valerie Alexander The senator's daughters are always embarrassing him, vying with each other to see whose behaviour can be the most scandalous. When Summer is hired to paint the library at the senator's house, she finds herself alone with Mica - the eldest of the daughters and one who knows just what to do to make another woman feel scandalously good... Sealed by Elise Hepner Someone's been writing naughty love notes to Marta's boss, Emily, in the campus mail room. Erotic, steamy notes that have been driving Emily up a wall. Sick of Emily's complaining and the relentless abuse the staff has had to endure as a result, Marta decides to woman up and take the blame. With one little white lie, their relationship alters for ever. And Marta relives her deepest, darkest fantasies for the first time outside of her own mind. One woman taking on another's erotic rage makes for the dirtiest after-hour sex - especially when Emily catches on to Marta's not so hidden secret. Rehearsing with Katarina by Elizabeth Coldwell Understudying Katarina, the star of Le Salon D'Or's exotic revue, is a dream come true for Jodie. Sex and Disability Apr 08 2021 This collection brings together scholars and artists in disability studies, sexuality, queer theory, and feminism, to show how much sexuality studies and disability studies have to learn from each other. Sex and Stigma Sep 20 2019 An intimate and original look at the lives of Nevada's legal sex workers through the voices of current and former employees, brothel owners, madams, and local law enforcement The state of Nevada is the only jurisdiction in the United States where prostitution is legal. Wrapped in moral judgments about sexual conduct and shrouded in titillating intrigue, stories about Nevada's legal brothels regularly steal headlines. The stigma and secrecy pervading sex work contribute to experiences of oppression and unfair labor practices for many legal prostitutes in Nevada. Sex and Stigma engages with stories of women living and working in these "hidden" organizations to interrogate issues related to labor rights, secrecy, privacy, and discrimination in the current legal brothel system. Including interviews with current and former legal sex workers, brothel owners, madams, local police, and others, Sex and Stigma examines how widespread beliefs about the immorality of selling sexual services have influenced the history and laws of legal brothel prostitution. With unique access to a difficult-to-reach population, the authors privilege the voices of brothel workers throughout the book as they reflect on their struggles to engage in their communities, conduct business, maintain personal relationships, and transition out of the industry. Further, the authors examine how these brothels operate like other kinds of legal entities, and how individuals contend with balancing work and non-work commitments, navigate work place cultures, and handle managerial relationships. Sex and Stigma serves as a resource on the policies guiding legal prostitution in Nevada and provides an intimate look at the lived experiences of women performing sex work.

Structural Intimacies Feb 24 2020 One of the most relevant social problems in contemporary American life is the continuing HIV epidemic in the Black population. With vivid ethnographic detail, this book brings together scholarship on the structural dimensions of the AIDS epidemic and the social construction of sexuality to assert that shifting forms of sexual stories—structural intimacies—are emerging, produced by the meeting of intimate lives and social structural patterns. These stories render such inequalities as racism, poverty, gender power disparities, sexual stigma, and discrimination as central not just to the dramatic, disproportionate spread of HIV in Black communities in the United States, but to the formation of Black sexualities. Sonja Mackenzie elegantly argues that structural vulnerability is felt—quite literally—in the blood, in the possibilities and constraints on sexual lives, and in the rhetorics of their telling. The circulation of structural intimacies in daily life and in the political domain reflects possibilities for seeking what Mackenzie calls intimate justice at the nexus of cultural, economic, political, and moral spheres. Structural Intimacies presents a compelling case: in an era of deepening medicalization of HIV/AIDS, public health must move beyond individual-level interventions to community-level health equity frames and policy changes Scrappy Little Nobody Apr 20 2022 "A collection of whimsical autobiographical essays by the Academy Award-nominated actress and star of Up in the Air recounts memorable milestones from her New England upbringing to the blockbuster films that have made her one of Hollywood's most popular actresses, "--Baker & Taylor.

Anna K Away Sep 01 2020 It's Crazy Rich Asians meets Gossip Girl! Anna K Away follows the fabulous cast of characters from Anna K over the course of the next summer, when new freedoms lead to life-changing adventures, risks, and self-discovery How the mighty have fallen. Anna K, once the golden girl of Greenwich, CT, and New York City, has been brought low by a scandalous sex tape and the tragic death of her first love, Alexia Vronsky. At the beginning of the summer, her father takes her to the other side of the world, to connect with his family in South Korea and hide her away. Is Anna in exile? Or could this be her chance to figure out who she really is? Back in the U.S., Lolly has forgiven Steven for cheating on her, and their relationship feels stronger than ever. But when Lolly meets a boy at her beloved theater camp, she has to ask herself how well Steven will ever really know her. Meanwhile, in Manhattan, everything between Kimmie and her new boyfriend, Dustin, is easy—except when it comes to finally having sex. And Bea escapes to LA, running away from her grief at her beloved cousin's death, until a beautiful stranger steals her heart. Is Bea ready to finally forgive Anna, and let herself truly fall in love for the very first time? Set over the course of one unforgettable summer, Jenny Lee's Anna K Away is full of the risk, joy, heartbreak, and adventure that mark the three months between the end of one school year and the beginning of the next.

Breathing Matters Aug 12 2021 Breathing is not a common subject in feminist studies. Breathing Matters introduces this phenomenon as a forceful potentiality for feminist intersectional theories, politics, and social and environmental justice. By analyzing the material and discursive as well as the natural and cultural enactments of breath in black lung disease, phone sex work, and anxieties and panic attacks, Breathing Matters proposes a nonuniversalizing and politicized understanding of embodiment. In this approach, human bodies are conceptualized as agential actors of intersectional politics. Magdalena Górska argues that struggles for breath and for breathable lives are matters of differential forms of political practices in which vulnerable and quotidian corporeal and corpo-affective actions are constitutive of politics. Set in the context of feminist poststructuralist and new materialist and postconstructionist debates, Breathing Matters offers a discussion of human embodiment and agency reconfigured in a posthumanist manner. Its interdisciplinary analytical practice demonstrates that breathing is a phenomenon that is important to study from scientific, medical, political, environmental and social perspectives.

Telling Sexual Stories Jan 17 2022 First published in 2004. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informal company. Sexual Orientation and Transgender Issues in Organizations Apr 27 2020 Over the last decade workforce diversity has attracted much scientific attention. Given the shortage of literature on issues related to homosexual, bisexual and transgender employees, compared to other facets of workforce diversity, this book opens up new perspectives on this issue. Emphasis is placed on the equal consideration of gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender issues. Thus the predominance of lesbian and gay issues in LGBT research (and practice), will be contrasted by an explicit consideration of the unique experiences, stressors and related needs of bisexual and transgender employees.

Contributions provide deeper insights into the differing experiences the whole spectrum of LGBT employees make in the workplace in different national and occupational contexts. Furthermore, the collection offers contextualized insights for evaluating and conceptualizing organizational initiatives aiming at a higher level of inclusion for LGBT employees.

We are the Machine May 09 2021 An investigation of attitudes toward -- and unease with -- Information Technology, as reflected in recent German-language literature.

Slaphappy Jan 25 2020 Mrs. M's nervous hysteria requires her doctor's revolutionary new treatment, Roger is a mime who turns sex into an art form, and Luscious Louise is just dying to knock a little sense into her clients behind the doors of a very special private gym. These are just a few of the characters living out their sexual fantasies and seriously getting up to things in Laz-E-Femme Press's debut release. Our very first 69 Production doubles your pleasure with smutty sex stories and hot erotica. Kick off your pumps and read! Once upon a time, Alicia and Anna met in a literary writing workshop, back when they were both writing straight-ahead literary stories. This was fun, but when they fell in with a motley crew of adventurers who were writing out on the erotic edge, A & A began to feel much more alive. Now, they get their juices flowing by writing unabashed smut. These two lusty ladies agree that the pleasure of reading erotica is enhanced by good grammar, a minimum of typos and a sure hand at the writing helm. They also believe that kindness and joy must be at the heart of every tale, even the ones containing a hint of melancholy. Above all, they want their sexy oeuvre to make readers feel good about their own unique sexiness, and perhaps give them an idea or two about something delicious to try, in or out of bed.
